RALPH LANGLEY ADKINS

Commander Submarine Force United States Pacific Fleet

The Commander Submarine Force, Pacific Fleet, has the honor to award the Submarine Combat Insignia and to commend in absentia, Ralph Langley Adkins, 2872777, EM 1c, U. S. Navy, for services set forth in the following:

CITATION:

"The U. S. S. Grenadier on an offensive war patrol in restricted waters, heavily patrolled by the enemy, failed to return as scheduled. It is not known how many successful attacks the GRENADEER made on this patrol; as she had a splendid record since the early days of the war, it is believed that she was engaged in delivering the same relentless attacks against the enemy up until the time she was reported missing."

"As Electrician's Mate first class of the U. S. S. GRENADEER, Ralph Langley Adkins' performance of duty materially contributed to the success of this vessel against the enemy. The Commander Submarine Force, Pacific Fleet, forwards this commendation in recognition of this splendid performance of duty, which was in keeping with the highest traditions of the Naval Service."

C. A. LOCKWOOD, Jr., Vice-Admiral, U. S. Navy.

Postal cards received from Ralph, now a prisoner of the Japs, reads:

May 20, 1945.

Dear Mom and Dad: Ben and I are well, received letter from Bonnie today—first one. Hope all are well! How is Dad? Please wire, write often. Luck to Ray, Bob and Verne, expecting packages—snaps—Ralph.

Arthur Dixon Is Democratic Candidate for County Judge of Letcher County

ARTHUR DIXON

TO THE PEOPLE OF LETCHER COUNTY:

After careful consideration I have decided to become a candidate for the office of County Judge of Letcher County.

I am fully mindful of the numerous and varied duties imposed upon this office. For four years I was Quarterly Court Clerk in the Judge's Office and as such I became fully acquainted with the duties and responsibilities of the office, and in fact I did most of the work connected with the office. During that time and for the more than three years that I have been connected with the County Attorney's Office I prepared the county budget, made the sheriff's settlements, made the county audits and did other statistical work for the county, to the end that I am perfectly familiar with every detail concerning the financial condition of the county. In other words, if I am elected your County Judge, from the day I enter the office I will know exactly what can be done and what cannot be done in the way of road improvements and other expenditures. It will not be necessary for me to experiment with the taxpayer's money. With this knowledge of the county's affairs I feel that the money allocated to the various funds can be used in a way that it will do the most good. Letcher County has a heavy bonded indebtedness and for this reason there is not a great deal of money that can be spent for other purposes, but such as there is I assure you it will be used for the best interests of the county.

In my previous connections with the county, while I was working for the other fellow, I have tried to be kind and courteous to all with whom I came in contact, and if I am successful in this venture I assure you I shall strive much more to be of service to my fellowmen. I have especially tried to assist the servicemen—those who have returned from the far-flung battlefields of this great conflict. I have tried to help them as I would want some person to help my son, who was shot down over enemy territory and then spent eight long months in a hell-hole known as a German prison camp.

During the past three years, and especially the past year while acting as Commander of the American Legion, I have devoted a good portion of my time to the service of our boys in and out of the armed forces. I have never received one penny for this work, but if I have been of service to some soldier or some widow, wife or mother of a soldier in filling out hundreds of applications for pensions, insurance and other benefits, I feel that I have been fully paid.

I have no ill-feeling toward any candidate for this important office—either democrat or republican. I number each of them as my special friends. I expect to carry on this campaign on a level befitting the importance of the office, and I feel sure that each of my opponents will do the same.

I shall have more to say to the public from time to time through the medium of this paper, and if due to the short time from now until the primary I am unable to talk to each voter personally, I would like for each of you to consider this announcement as a personal appeal to you to help me win this nomination and election.

Sincerely yours,
—ARTHUR DIXON.

Fred Bocook Dies As Result of Injuries

Just as we were about to go to press we learn of the death of Conductor Fred Bocook, one of the best known conductors on the E. K. Division. Mr. Bocook was on his train run and at Heidelberg a freight train was stalled by one of the cars being off the track. Mr. Bocook was trying to help get the car back on the track when a large chain fastened to the car broke when the engine started. The broken chain hit Mr. Bocook around the hips and it seems completely crushing him so severely that he never recovered.

Mr. Bocook was a pioneer in many ways due to the fact that he brought the first train to McRoberts when the passenger service was started. He had been a trusted and valuable employee of the Old Reliable for more than 50 years. He passed away Friday evening at 6:25 and was buried Monday in Lexington near his home. He is survived by his widow and several relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wheeler and children of Whitesburg, Mrs. Ellen Wheeler and Jean Wheeler from Ashland were the week end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Shade Franklin.

EUGENE ANDERSON

Germany, May 23, 1945.

Dear Mom:

I know you are thinking of what a swell son I turned out to be for not writing for so long and I deserve whatever you may say. I have been sick for the past few days and haven't been able to do much of anything but no matter how sick I am I shouldn't put off writing to a swell mom like you.

I guess you are wondering when I am coming home. Well, I wish I knew myself, but I don't think it will be very long from now because I have 32 points and I think that should be enough to get me home for a 30-day furlough anyway, don't you? I have fought the Germans for two years now and we have 445 days of actual combat and have fought all the way from Sicily to Munich, Germany with the 43rd Division and I think we deserve to come home.

I got three letters from you yesterday and was really glad to hear you are getting along well with the paper. You and Pearl have worked hard for what you have and when I return I want to do everything I can to help keep the business going good.

I have had a lot of experience in the three years I have been away and I know the hard side of life and how much the poor people have suffered over here. The papers and radio have always talked about how mean the Germans were but I never did believe it until a few weeks ago when I saw with my own eyes 30,000 human bodies stacked in box cars gassed to death by the Nazis. They were Russians, Polish and even their own people who had turned against them for the Allies. There were 60,000 in this one camp but we couldn't find the other 30,000. There were a few who escaped from the SS guards and lived to tell the story and they said the Germans took 800 a day and told them they were going to take a shower and when they got them in the building they were gassed to death. It was really pitiful to see all those bodies lying there, nothing but skin and bones. The Germans can't be human to do a thing like that.

Well, I guess I will have to close for now as I can't think of much more to write about. I hope by the time you get this letter that I will be on my way home. Oh boy, won't that be the day. Good bye for now, and best wishes to all.

Your son,
—GENE ANDERSON.
NOTE—Gene made his home with The Eagle for several years and is known by many in Neon and Whitesburg.

A Letter

Oak Ridge, Tenn. To the Voters of Letcher County, Kentucky:

I noticed from The Mountain Eagle that Mr. Combs is a candidate for Sheriff of your County in the August Primary and as I am a former citizen of Jenkins, Kentucky, I was well acquainted with Mr. Combs in a business and personal way and know that he is one of the best men I ever met and I believe if he is elected to this office he will make you as good a Sheriff as you have ever had.

He is a native of Letcher County and is well known by everyone and is a business man and is very capable of handling a position of this kind. During the period of years that I was a Police Officer at Jenkins, Ky., I had cause to have business dealings with Mr. Combs and I always found him to be courteous and honest at all times.

I would appreciate it very much if my friends would give Mr. Combs their wholehearted support in the coming election.

A Former Citizen of Jenkins, Kentucky.
—Sgt. H. C. Brummett, Roane Division Guard Headquarters, Oak Ridge, Tenn. (Pol. Adv.)

Cpl. Dan Combs arrived in Whitesburg early this week after serving over a year with the Eighth Air Force in France. The son of Mr. and Mrs. John Combs of Colly, Cpl. Combs gets a thirty days furlough.

WHITESBURG

ROTARY CLUB

America
Invocation
Luncheon.

Mr. A. C. Jenkins, was the guest speaker, substituting for Rotarian Kermit Combs, who was in charge of the program.

Mr. Jenkins' address was on "GOOD FELLOWSHIP" and reads in part as follows:

"Two words which sound very much alike are 'good fellow' and 'good fellowship.' Often they are of identical meaning, and again their meanings may be opposite as the poles of the earth.

"A good fellow too often is one who hands out smiles liberally and is quick with a pat on the back without any sincere feeling behind it.

"This is merely his 'style' or manner of doing things. There are many of these so-called 'good fellows' who lavish their attention and friendships only upon those who can do them some good. Others are often treated with rudeness.

"Such a person may be a good fellow to a few but he shows good fellowship toward none.

"To often the so-called 'good fellow' follows a carefully laid plan to benefit his demonstration of friendship and good feeling. He directs those demonstrations toward those who may reciprocate in some manner. At heart he is selfish and self-centered. Good fellowship never is.

"Good fellowship consists of being kind, helpful and of assistance to all, everywhere, and in any way possible.

There is no selfish thought of reward or benefits to be gained by such action. Good fellowship is like virtue, its good reward.

"Good fellowship has nothing to do with being a good fellow. Many of those who are most noted for their works of good fellowship may be quiet, reserved, retiring individuals who never mix socially in the custom of the good fellow. They are sincere in their efforts and want nothing beyond the satisfaction of knowing they have done someone a good turn.

"Let us not confuse good fellowship with good fellow. The person who can be both has combined in one individual two very rare and valuable qualities.

"The good fellow who also sincerely practices good fellowship is a person worthy of our respect and praise.

"Size makes a great impression upon human beings. Big homes, big buildings, big cars, big ships and the like are of special importance because of their vast magnitude.

"Men like to be busy on big deals. Something that is big always arouses our interest, just as a child will look eagerly to a gift in a big box rather than one in a small box.

"We are so busy paying attention to the so-called big things of life that we neglect and overlook the little important details.

"This is where we are foolish, because it is the small things of life which are most important to us.

"The average man is a 'small' man. He lives in a small house, holds a small job and the real success and happiness of his life depends upon small matters.

"We should learn not to be impressed so by big things, and recognize that small things have a far more important place in our lives. Besides it is the little things which count.

"Look at the horse and the hornet. Any person would rather sit on a horse than on a hornet.

"Scientists tell us that a tiny atom contains more energy than a huge power plant. An insignificant termite can destroy a building that resists all the force of a big storm.

"Little things also count in our social life. A few unkind words can destroy a beautiful friendship built over a period of years.

"An inconsiderate and selfish action can cause family arguments and lead to unhappiness.

"We must be careful of the little things of life and not overlook them because our eyes are set on the bigger and more impressive which capture our attention due to their size but in the end are relatively unimportant.

"Let us not be fooled by size alone, and let us learn to appreciate the small things.

"This is particularly true of the small things which make up friendship and fellowship.

"There is a humorous story which is supposed to have originated in China and tells about a Chinese youth who had an opportunity to travel and study in the United States. When he returned to his native land he compared everything in China unfavorably with things in the United States.

"Even the moon is better, more pretty," the young Chinese said, and this vexed his father and slapped his son. As the boy fell, he cried, "Yes," and even the fathers are better in America."

"American fathers are among the best in the world—if not the best. They have a lively sense of humor, a sense of fairness and justice and a deep affection for their children.

"Most American fathers recognize a deep responsibility to care for and look after their offspring. They also recognize the fact that as rapid as possible they must transfer their responsibilities to the children themselves.

"Fathers succeed only as they work themselves to so prepare and equip the child for a successful life.

"Fathers are deserving of attention and should receive it. However, the sentimentality and emotion surrounding Mother's Day would not be fitting for a Father's Day celebration, and neither would be enjoy it.

"The father prefers that type of celebration sweetened with good fellowship which proclaims him to be a good fellow.

"Father's Day gives every child an opportunity to express his or her love for the father, and the appreciation for the kindness and efforts made by the father on many occasions during that long and often trying process which is known as 'rearing a child.'

"Today we recognize more than ever the important part played by father and we attach to him a sentimental importance by naming a day in his honor.

"On that day let us join with the Chinese youth and say 'even the fathers are better in America.'

"Little things also count in our social life. A few unkind words can destroy a beautiful friendship built over a period of years.

"An inconsiderate and selfish action can cause family arguments and lead to unhappiness.

"We must be careful of the little things of life and not overlook them because our eyes are set on the bigger and more impressive which capture our attention due to their size but in the end are relatively unimportant.

"Let us not be fooled by size alone, and let us learn to appreciate the small things.

"This is particularly true of the small things which make up friendship and fellowship.

"There is a humorous story which is supposed to have originated in China and tells about a Chinese youth who had an opportunity to travel and study in the United States. When he returned to his native land he compared everything in China unfavorably with things in the United States.

"Even the moon is better, more pretty," the young Chinese said, and this vexed his father and slapped his son. As the boy fell, he cried, "Yes," and even the fathers are better in America."

"American fathers are among the best in the world—if not the best. They have a lively sense of humor, a sense of fairness and justice and a deep affection for their children.

"Most American fathers recognize a deep responsibility to care for and look after their offspring. They also recognize the fact that as rapid as possible they must transfer their responsibilities to the children themselves.

"Fathers succeed only as they work themselves to so prepare and equip the child for a successful life.

"Fathers are deserving of attention and should receive it. However, the sentimentality and emotion surrounding Mother's Day would not be fitting for a Father's Day celebration, and neither would be enjoy it.

"The father prefers that type of celebration sweetened with good fellowship which proclaims him to be a good fellow.

"Father's Day gives every child an opportunity to express his or her love for the father, and the appreciation for the kindness and efforts made by the father on many occasions during that long and often trying process which is known as 'rearing a child.'

"Today we recognize more than ever the important part played by father

THE CUMBERLAND VALLEY 4H CLUB NEWS

The Cumberland Valley 4H Club met May 21, 1945 at 6:30 P. M. at the Cumberland Valley Presbyterian Church.

We began our program by standing and repeating the Flag Salute, the Christian pledge and the 4-H Club pledge. The roll was called and answered by naming our favorite wild flower.

We had a good nature program which was "Summer Playmates". The program was very good and the members brought in as many different leaves as they could find so Mr. Brown helped us to tell the rest what kinds they were. It was fun telling what each kind was.

The meeting was ended by a talk by Mrs. Mullins and we sang a large number of songs then played some outdoor games.

Club had five sewing meetings before the rally with Mrs. Rogers present once and Mrs. Mullins twice, then Mrs. Ida Martin helped finish in the last meetings.

There were 14 from our club to attend the Rally and we came back with 10 blue ribbons and 1 red and no yellow ones so we had a good feeling on our way back and afterwards also, even if we did have to stand up on our way back on the bus. One from our club attended the training school Saturday, May 26th and came back with lots of good information to give to the rest of the members. It was so bad that day not very many attended but it was very helpful.

LITTLE COWAN 4-H CLUB NEWS

The Little Cowan 4-H Club met at the school house, Friday, June 8. The meeting was called to order by the president. The secretary called the roll and the members answered by telling the name of a bird they had seen this year.

Thirty members were present and three visitors; Elizabeth Donnelly, Jonella Day and Opal Day. One leader, Mr. Myrel Brown, was also there.

The Club sang a few songs led by the song leader. Mr. Brown told us we had been selected to take a part in the program at the 4-H Club Play Day at the Golf Course in Mayking, June 16. We think it is quite an honor.

The Club adjourned to the school yard to play games.

HIS Honest AGGRESSIVE OPINIONS win the respect of

The Times readers

TOM WALLACE, for fifteen years editor of THE LOUISVILLE TIMES, has his roots deep in the soil of Kentucky. A fifth generation Kentuckian, he was born at Hurricane and moved to Shelby County when he was a boy. Still a farm-dweller at Prospect, he gets up each morning at 5:00, personally tends his poultry flock, confers with his tenants and brings the milk from his Jersey herd into town. By 8:30 he is at his desk starting his prodigious output of editorials and articles.

Wallace started out as a bookkeeper but quickly realized that his interest lay in the news world. In 1900 he began his career at The Times. Five years later he joined The Courier-Journal as editorial writer and drama critic under "Marse Henry" Watterson. In 1923 he was made chief of The Times editorial staff. In 1930 Times editor.

Concerned with conservation since he was twelve, Wallace has championed by speech and editorial the preservation of our natural resources. Almost single-handed for a time, he fought to save Cumberland Falls for the state, which won him the Pugsley Silver Medal. The annual Tom Wallace Forestry Award is named in his honor.

A world-traveler, he has for the past few years pointed his trips toward South America, especially Mexico... writing keen, sympathetic articles south of the border. This month he flew to Caracas for a meeting of the Inter-American Press Association of which he is U. S. vice president.

The Wallaces have two children, a daughter, Mrs. Leo Handel, whose son Tommy is named after his grandfather; and a son, Henry, an officer in the Merchant Marine, somewhere in the South Pacific.

How CTC* Gives a Giant the GREEN LIGHT

A huge locomotive and its train of cargo speeds onward at the command of a green light that signals — "all clear ahead!"

Seventy-five miles away, the dispatcher, seated before a control panel, literally watches this train proceed toward its destination. For the lights on his control board enable him to "see" every train in the district — and by merely pushing buttons, thus actuating signals and switches out on the line, he governs the movements of all rail traffic within a given area.

Centralized Traffic Control is one of the recent, important electrical devices in railroad operation.

Installed or under way on 530 miles of L&N main line, at a cost of $2,700,000, CTC is speeding up vital traffic with safety, increasing capacity and helping to hasten the day of total victory.

WHAT IS CTC*?

Centralized Traffic Control replaces hand-written orders and hand-operated switches, and by signal indication electrically controls the movement of all trains within the range of its operation. It holds a train on the main line or on the siding, "tells" it to proceed after being held, keeps track of its location... lines up its route. It is one of many progressive steps for speed and safety taken by this Railroad to increase the value of the Old Reliable as a public servant.

J. E. Childers

Statement From

J. E. CHILDERS

TO THE VOTERS OF THE 35TH JUDICIAL DISTRICT:

At the urgent request of many voters from every part of the District, I have become a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Commonwealth's Attorney, at the August 4 primary.

I shall not be able, due to my duties in court and the transportation conditions, to see all of the voters between now and the primary, however much I should like to do so, and I am writing you asking you for your vote and influence at the primary.

If nominated and elected, I shall conduct the office pretty much as I have conducted it during the last twelve years, making such improvements as these years of experience will enable me to make. I shall prosecute vigorously those whom the Grand Jury may indict but I shall do so fairly, and according to the facts of the case and not the parties concerned.

Crime has been reduced, as the records will show, at least 50 per cent during my two terms as prosecutor, and that was true before the war. However, there may be rather troublous days ahead, during the period of re-education, and a strong, dependable man may be needed in this office.

I do not think the voters will be alarmed by the cry, "We need a change." We heard that cry last year against our great president who was seeking another term.

I was born in the camps of the opposition and not in the camps of democracy. If my services have been satisfactory, I know of no other reason why they should be discontinued unless something better is in sight.

I am the only man who has ever been elected to office in the judicial district on the Democratic ticket and I would be elected again and it would be folly on the part of the Democrats to nominate a man who could not approach being elected. If you were betting on the horse races, you would not bet on a horse who lost the last race. If you were farming or logging, you would not trade the horse off which had given you faithful and efficient service for a number of years.

I have tried to treat the public with courtesy. Of course, I have not stood on the street corners and in the market places like the Publican of old and boasted that I was not like other men. I have had neither time nor inclination to do that. I have had to work to raise a large family, five of whom are now in the military service of the United States. There is a saying that it is best not to talk too much because it is easier to be more accurate and consistent if you speak only the things that are true.

I have tried to do well whatever was entrusted to my hands. I have tried to spend my time attending to the things that pertain to me and my office and have made it a special point to let other people manage their private and personal affairs as they saw fit.

I think I have the confidence and respect of the people of this District, a fact which I shall cherish until memory is still, and I shall conduct this office, if nominated and elected, so as to merit a continuation of that confidence and respect.

I shall appreciate your support in the coming primary election. Your confidence in me shall be repaid by a continuation of the fair, honest, impartial and efficient service I have at all times tried to render.

—J. E. CHILDERS.

Announcement

By request of a number of my friends and voters of Magisterial District No. 2 Letcher County, Kentucky, for me to file as a candidate for the office of magistrate subject to the action of the Democratic Primary, August 4th so I filed my petition on June 4th and now wish to appeal to the voters for their support for this office.

I am past 62 years of age and have spent the greater part of my life in Pike County, Ky., but for the past 12 years have been a registered voter and citizen of this county. I served a short term as Justice of the Peace in Pike County by appointment of the Governor of this state, and have served two four year terms as fourth class postmaster. I mention this only to show the voters my qualifications to serve them if I should be nominated and elected to this office, and I wish to make this statement: I have spent eight years with the Consolidation Coal Co., and as a member of the United Mine Workers of America all this time. I served two years of this time as Union Checkweighman. I am at this time working as carpenter wherever I can get employment.

I was ruptured in the mines is why I was forced to take up other trades for employment, now I pledge my honor if nominated and elected to serve every citizen of this District in a fair and business-like manner regardless of color or creed, and as a member of the Fiscal Court to guard against any false claims coming out of the taxpayer's money of this county.

Furthermore I want to state that I will not get out and agitate or solicit business into my court. But will be ready and willing to consider any and all complaints coming before me for action, and do all I can to help keep the peace and dignity of this great commonwealth of the State of Kentucky, so help me God.

If my votes will be appreciated.

S. Sgt. Jimmy Dixon Returns After Two Months' Rest Since Liberation

S. SGT. JIMMY DIXON

We were delighted this week to greet S. Sgt. Jimmy Dixon who was a prisoner of the Germans for eight months. Jimmy looks to be in the pink of condition and states he has gained 22 lbs. since being back in the hands of the Allies. Jimmy states that he could not be happier, now that he is back home. He said the Red Cross packages were of the greatest help to the prisoners.

When asked about the damage to the German country as a whole, Jimmy replied, "It is just leveled." He said as the Germans saw the handwriting on the wall they began to treat the Americans better and that the morale of the Germans was very low. Their diet consisted principally of potatoes and bread with an occasional piece of horse or dog meat. Even at that he said the prisoners were treated better than the average civilian.

Sgt. Dixon said the principle sports were soft ball and basketball. He stated that the climate where he was located near Eastern Prussia, was generally cold and drab. He was in camp No. 4 of Stalag Luft and not one time during his imprisonment did he get one single piece of mail from home or loved ones.

In relating the experiences Jimmy said they had made soup from Grass and said it was not so bad at least when it was hungry. Jimmy had been on 29 missions and was shot down twice, once prior to his capture.

He stated that 8,000 prisoners were in his camp and only two died during the eight months he was there one from natural causes and one was killed when he tried to escape.

He was liberated by the American Third Army and landed in Bari Italy, May 3th, 1945.

Sgt. Dixon is a graduate of Whitesburg High School and attended Eastern State Normal College at Richmond, Ky. and is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Dixon, prominent citizens of Whitesburg. He was a radio operator on

Lions Club Banquet

One of the largest banquets held here recently was the Lions Club Charter Night Banquet on Thursday evening, which was served by the Woman's Auxiliary of the Presbyterian Church. There were about 140 guests served to a delightful fried chicken dinner. Lions Clubs represented as guests of Whitesburg Lions were Evans, Hazard and Etnelville. Following the introduction of distinguished guests short talks were given by several of the visitors. Impromptu vocal numbers by the local Lions gave the atmosphere a spirit of fun and gaiety. The Welcome address was most ably given by Lion A. C. Jenkins, who introduced the Toastmaster, Lion Willie Quillen of the Neon Club.

The speaker of the evening was Lion Jimmie Draughn of Hazard Club who discussed the origin of Lions Club and the work which can be accomplished by such an organization and how much more can be accomplished if the Lions, the Rotary and other civic clubs work together toward the same aims. He presented the Charter to the President

Letters From Our Boys In The Service

June 16, 1945
Somewhere in the Philippines
4 June, 1945.

My report from the Pacific is a little late this time but it should be a full one as things have been happening thick and fast for the last few weeks. For one thing, we have been occupied with moving up here from the Netherlands East Indies and getting our new camp set up and on planes in the air and as you all know the latter is the most important factor.

I find life here in the Philippines a lot better and more like home, at least the people are set more on modern ways and are very intelligent and can speak good English and even that is a great improvement over the regular bush native that I have encountered on any of the other islands farther south.

Our camp isn't very far from what is left of a once thriving small city. I have been out on several more or less sightseeing tours of the town and from what is left of the homes and business sections show that the people have a very good taste for beauty, in the higher class residential sections the homes were well constructed of materials that that even the Americans wouldn't use, mahogany and concrete houses of the old Spanish design and usually of the two story nature, then, there comes the more primitive types with the thatched sides and roofs with bamboo cane floors and set up on stilt like affairs.

The Filipino people are great lovers of all types of sports and are very good at them too, especially where speed is required, they are as fast as cats in their movements, they also go in for any kind of gambling in a big way, they will bet their last centavo on cards or cock fights. Only yesterday a group of us 4. I attended one of their regular Sunday afternoon cock fighting meets, and these half wild roosters are tough and vicious things and the Philippine monetary system the most simple and most like American money than any of the four kinds I've used within the last year. First I used the French Francs, then the Australian Pound notes and as we moved farther north came the Dutch Guilder and now the Philippine Peso. The Peso is equal to exactly half the value of the American dollar and both silver and paper are issued in the same denominations as the money back home, most of it has been issued since the recapture of the Islands and is sometimes referred to as Liberator or Victory money.

Just received a couple copies of The Eagle today and noticed a letter from Glen Spradlin in the "Letters from the Boys" column and seems as though we were both on the same island in the Netherlands East Indies and didn't know it and from his letter there might be a chance that we are close together here in the Philippines. As far as action goes it has been pretty quiet since we moved up here, just two air raids so far but that is enough to rate one more bronze star on my ribbon and five more points toward my discharge. This point system is causing a lot of good natured commotion among the boys and I must say that our hopes and morale is much higher after the good news of V-E Day.

This morning I ambled over to where a group of Negro truck drivers were shooting the breeze and after listening to their conversation for a while I gathered that they had landed here when the days were counted as D-plus and heard one remark, "I would of given this Army truck and two months pay to of had a good meal of Tennessee possum and black strap lasses under my belt when we landed here. I know my knees wouldn't of been shaking as hard." So with the thoughts of good home cooked food on my mind I'll remain,

—Just That Corporal.

War Price & Rationing Board No. 3243.1
Letcher County
Whitesburg, Ky.

June 13, 1945.
Mr. W. H. Browne, District Board Executive,
Office of Price Administration
District Office
132 East Short Street
Lexington 9, Kentucky

Dear Mr. Browne:
I have decided to become a candidate for the office of Sheriff in this county. In order that no embarrassment may be placed upon the Board, I hereby tender my resignation as a member of War Price and Rationing Board 3243.1. I appreciate your kindness your office has shown me and also that of the Field Representatives from your office during my service as a Board Member. While serving as a Board Member, I have tried to be fair and impartial to all concerned, although it has been hard in some cases. In closing, I wish to say that if I can be of any further help to this program hereafter, I shall only be too glad to donate what time necessary.

Yours very truly
—JIM SHORT.

Germany,
May 30, 1945.

Dear Mrs. Nolan:
I have just now finished reading the "Eagle" and it sure is doing a swell job of morale building for the boys away from home. I want to thank you for each and every copy. I also give thanks to my wife for keeping my paper going. Sometimes they come a little late but they are welcomed no matter how late they are.

I have written a few poems overseas to the boys in the Pacific to show that we over here haven't forgotten them even though the war is over here.

The war is over so they say. Let us not forget for a single day.

Away across the world from here. Are many loved ones we all hold dear.

This war is not over, don't forget. We have one enemy of three left yet. Just keep on working and do your part. And bring back those so dear to our hearts.

Many are fighting and giving their lives. That all their loved ones, sweetheart and wives. May have the freedom we hold so high. Don't let them down in our battle cry.

So I say again to one and all. Just do your part be it large or small. Thus you'll help to hasten that glorious day. When all the boys come home to stay.

Thanking you again,
—Sgt. Ellis Banks.

MOTHER'S DAY

Dear Mother I have so much to tell you
Yet there is so little I can say
Except I would give my whole life's earnings
To be with you this Mother's Day.

Some one has put this day aside
But why I could never see
For every day through the year
Is Mother's Day to me.

Yet there are thousands of miles between us
Still we're not so far apart
For beneath this soldier's uniform
An image of your heart.

I am sending you all of my love
Which would never begin to pay
For the worries I have caused you
For just one single day.

When years have moved upon me
My youthful days are through
Pray God my children's mother
Is half as good as you.

So if you should lose a son
Be brave and do not cry
For to protect one and love such mothers
Is why these men so bravely die.

—Norman C. Webb,
Southwest Pacific.
To my Mother, Mrs. Ben Webb

You're looking at an electric "whirley" crane in action. It's placing a superstructure on the deck of a new troop transport.

This is a big, rough, tough power job. It takes a lot of "juice"—a far cry from the amount needed to make your breakfast toast.

Today, electricity is doing a lot of big jobs... helping to keep America's huge war machine roaring toward victory. And it's also doing a little jobs in the home... helping to give hard-working Americans the comforts and conveniences that keep morale high.

And all this at low peacetime prices!

Your electric company is glad to have been able to keep plenty of cheap electricity on tap in these war times... and our folks like it! An abundant supply will be ready to serve all your peacetime needs.

LIONS CLUB

CHARTER NIGHT ACCEPTANCE SPEECH

(by Richard Evans, Pres.)

Mr. Toastmaster, Deputy District Governor Draughn, Fellow Lions, their Ladies and guests of Lions:

We are happy to have so many of you with us for our Charter Night. The advent of Lionism into our Community has marked an era of development of our Citizens.

We'll do we appreciate that Clubs make Cities, Cities make States, and States make our great nation. If we, through Lionism, can typify our Associations' motto of L-I-O-N-S: Liberty, Intelligence, Our Nation's Safety, we will have found for ourselves a niche which none other could ever hope to occupy.

In accepting this Charter, and in establishing a completed and recognized unit of the International Association of Lions Clubs, our hopes, our faith, our petition may best be set forth in the words of that ancient philosopher Marcus Aurelius, whose advice is yet so modern, "Forward as occasion offers, never look around to see whether any shall note it, be satisfied with success in even the smallest matter, and think that even such a result is no trifle."

As first president of the Whitesburg Lion's Club, and in behalf of our membership, I pledge to the Citizens of this Community:

That the Lions Club is founded to perpetuate in men's hearts a love of our Native land, and to talk of, and strive for honesty, reciprocity and cooperation in business, Community betterment and Municipal growth.

That we are organized that there may flow from good fellowship, mutual help and profit, and that our combined influence may be systematized, directed, and utilized toward the welfare and upbuilding of our own Community.

That we are free from political entanglements and sectarianisms; we are a brotherhood without secrets; definitely do we aim to practice concretely the Golden Rule.

That we will always, conscientiously and loyally, set about to make a better place in which to live, and we will willingly and earnestly join hands with all Citizens, or group of Citizens in all worthy undertakings; we are here to

R. Monroe Fields

Will, when nominated and re-elected, endeavor, as in the past, to serve faithfully all the people, and to be fair, courteous and just to all, regardless of their political affiliations.

YOUR SUPPORT SOLICITED

(Pol. Adv.)

That we cordially invite from, and at the same time, extend to, all organizations of like kind, character, and purpose, hearty cooperation in achieving the aims for which all Lions stand.

To an honest realization of all such aims the Whitesburg Lions Club does now dedicate itself; it has no other cause for existence. Modestly do we hope that some day it may be said of Whitesburg that it is a better place in which to live, to work, and to play, by the virtue of her Lions Club.
